Independent Audit Report to the Committee of the Botanical Art Society Incorporated For the year ended 31st March 2022

Scope

We have reviewed the electronic version (MYOB) financial reports and General Ledger Accounts, being a special purpose financial report of Botanical Art Society of Australia Inc for the year ended 31/03/2021. The Association's board members are responsible for the financial report and have determined that the accounting policies used. The financial report is consistent with the financial reporting requirements of the Association's constitution and are appropriate to meet the needs of the members. We have conducted an independent review of the online electronic version (MYOB) financial reports in order to express an opinion on it to the members of Botanical Art Society of Australia Inc. An opinion is expressed as to whether the accounting policies used are appropriate to the needs of the members.

The financial report has been prepared for distribution to members for the purpose of fulfilling the Board members' financial reporting requirements under the Association's constitution. We disclaim any assumption of responsibility for any reliance on this report or on the financial report to which it relates to any person other than the members, or for any purpose other than that for which it was prepared.

Our review requested by the Board member(s) has been conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Our procedures included examination, on a test basis, of evidence supporting the amounts and other disclosures in the financial reports, and the evaluation of significant accounting estimates. These procedures have been undertaken to form an opinion whether, in all material respects, the financial report is presented fairly in accordance with accounting policies, so as to present a view which is consistent with our understanding of the Association's financial position, and performance as represented by the results of its operations. These policies do not require the application of all Accounting Standards and other mandatory professional reporting requirements in Australia.

The review opinion expressed in this report has been formed on the above basis.

Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the review to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement. A review involves performing procedures to obtain evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. A review also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

Because of the inherent limitations of a review, together with the inherent limitations of internal control, there is an unavoidable risk that some material misstatements may not be detected, even though the review is properly planned and performed in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards.

In making our risk assessments, we consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation of the financial statements in order to design review procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. However, we will communicate to you in writing concerning any significant deficiencies in internal control relevant to the review of the financial statements that we have identified during the review.

Our review is not designed to be a complete examination of all aspects of your accounting system. Accordingly, any matters that are reported to you verbally or in writing should not be regarded as all-inclusive.

Reporting

We anticipate the issues of a review report in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards, however the form and content of our report may need to be amended in the light of our review findings.

These statements should be read in conjunction with the attached compilation report.

Independence

We have established policies and procedures designed to ensure our independence, including policies on the provision of non-audit work.

Other financial information in reports

We read the financial information contained in the online electronic versions (MYOB) files or statements that are issued with any of the financial statements, including the Committee reports, email correspondences, to identify material inconsistencies with the financial reports. However, we will not verify such other information.

Review Findings

In our opinion, the financial reports present fairly in accordance with the accounting policies described in Note 1 to the financial statements, financial position of Botanical Art Society of Australia Inc as at 31/03/2022.
